Today my dragon is sleeping
It is quiet and calm

YOU can't see it but I know it's there...

Now I can feel the dragon waking up
It is stretching and yawning and making my skin tingle and twitch

It's spreading its wings

and growing red and angry!

I don't like this dragon!

“Especially as I don’t suffer from eczema myself, this really helped me see what [my child] is feeling.”

“Loved the way you haven't shied away from the difficult and painful experiences and feelings children have about eczema. The theme keeping control 'go away' very strong.”

“The Dragon in My Skin is a beautiful resource to enable teachers to confidently address difficult topics and develop children’s awareness of feelings and emotions. The book and accompanying resources will also help all children to understand how difficult it is to live with eczema on a day-to day basis and develop empathy towards others.”
